Parent/Student Chromebook Policy Handbook Agreements

The Chromebooks issued by York Public School (York) have been chosen to support digital curriculum and effective instruction within and outside of York classrooms. The devices can access the internet and run applications enabling learners to participate fully in digital learning opportunities. Use of a device is a privilege, and students must demonstrate appropriate caution and responsibility when using it. Parent permission is required before any device may be assigned to a student.

- I have been provided information regarding the optional York Chromebook Assurance Program and I understand my financial responsibilities should I choose to participate or not.
- I agree to the safe and timely return of the device at any time upon request or when it is otherwise due.
- I recognize that York maintains filtering capability regardless of the host network.
- I understand that York is not liable for any use or sites accessed or material viewed or downloaded through an outside network or inappropriate network/system access while my child is using the device.
- I grant permission for York to provide selected information required for my child to use online or other equipment or instructional technology tools approved by the York Administration and Technology Department. I further consent that York may provide such information on my behalf under the Children's Online Privacy Protection Act, Children's Internet Protection Act, Protection of Pupil Rights Amendment, Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act, and other federal or state law.
- I specifically agree to indemnify and hold York harmless from all liability, damages, claims, costs, expenses or other charges of any kind or nature whatsoever resulting from my child's use of the York device or from any unauthorized use or content viewed on or downloaded to the device.
